Global existence for the stable Muskat equation

Omar Lazar
IMUS - Universidad de Sevilla

The Muskat problem is a nonlinear and nonlocal PDE that describes the dynamic of two incompressible fluids of different densities separated by a porous media. I will talk about the Cauchy problem associated with a data in the critical Sobolev space. Joint with D. Córdoba.