

HOPF BIFURCATION FROM INFINITY FOR PLANAR CONTROL SYSTEMS

JAUME LLIBRE AND ENRIQUE PONCE

Abstract

Symmetric piecewise linear bi-dimensional systems are very common in control engineering. They constitute a class of non-differentiable vector fields for which classical Hopf bifurcation theorems are not applicable. For such systems, sufficient and necessary conditions for bifurcation of a limit cycle from the periodic orbit at infinity are given.
