

PADUA AND PISA ARE EXPONENTIALLY FAR APART

BENJAMIN M. M. DE WEGER*

Abstract

We answer the question posed by Ian Stewart which Padovan numbers are at the same time Fibonacci numbers. We give a result on the difference between Padovan and Fibonacci numbers, and on the growth of Padovan numbers with negative indices.

*This author's research was supported by the Netherlands Mathematical Research Foundation SWON with financial aid from the Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research NWO. This paper was written while the author enjoyed the hospitality of the Centre de Recerca Matemàtica, Institut d'Estudis Catalans, Bellaterra, Catalunya.