Publicacions Matemàtiques, Vol. 44 (2000), 503–592

ON THE EXISTENCE OF CANARD SOLUTIONS

Daniel Panazzolo

Abstract

We study the existence of global canard surfaces for a wide class of real singular perturbation problems. These surfaces define families of solutions which remain near the slow curve as the singular parameter goes to zero.

2000 Mathematics Subject Classification. 34E10, 34C23, 58F21.