

Sobolev extensions

PEKKA KOSKELA
University of Jyväskylä

Given a domain, it may or may not be possible to extend all Sobolev functions in a given first order Sobolev space to the entire underlying Euclidean space. I will explain the known functional properties of such extensions and pose some open problems.